ALUMNI COMMITTEE

The Alumni Committee of SSCE is the binding thread between the alma mater and its alumni. The committee is constantly in touch with the alumni and is responsible for building and developing the alumni association of SSCE with its notable alumni across the globe. They organize the alumni meet every year. It is an excellent platform for students to interact with the alumni and get important insights and anecdotes regarding their life experiences. The Committee was reconstituted under the guidance of our present principal as the chairman.

Functions of Alumni Associations:

1. The primary function of Alumni association is to start the network of former graduates, who will in turn solicit donations that helps the institution to branch out its fame.
2. Maintaining data with Successful graduates from the association can help with career development of other graduates, who are pursuing, and also for other graduates in the association. Online portals and platforms should be designed for the adequate functioning of the coalition.
3. The association should also adopt core values of excellence and advocacy. It also conducts certain special social events for the students to be felt connected with the college and hence developing working relationship with other Alumni council members.
4. It also functions as a great resource to grant scholarships, job postings, and online resources for job seekers.
